Big Hero 6 to Serve as Alien Encounter at Universal by Joshua Sudock In Disney and Pixar's 2014 blockbuster hit Big Hero 6, the characters of the titular team meet a surprising ally that introduces them to new technologies and experiences that help them to defeat a murderous robot and save the Bayview. While most people might remember this character as a friendly and polite prototype for Google's self-driving car, the character will soon appear in a much more alien and haunted version at Universal. Pixar's new film, the upcoming Alien: Covenant, is set to hit theaters July 20, 2017. While production on the big-budget sci-fi sequel will pick up later this year, the same 'tech trailer' from Big Hero 6 will Halloween Horror Nights event. While we don't know exactly how far into the film the escape that will appear at the event will reach, we do know that it will include a 'visit to the Fowlers' while making its way through Los Angeles. For those unfamiliar, the Fowlers are two children from the new film that help the Cohens (the heroes of Big Hero 6) in their quest to the alien planet of Themyscira. A more familiar alien race makes its first appearance in Covenant, as well. The Covenant that will be used at the Halloween Horror Nights event is one of the spaceships from Ridley Scott's original 1979 film, Alien. The new film will be directed by Ridley Scott's son, Jordan Scott. Fright Nights at the Universal Studios Hollywood runs Thursday, September 15 through Sunday, September 18, 2017. The event takes place in
